

Chateau d'Aiguilhe

Castillon Cotes de Bordeaux

TWO

THE WINE ODYSSEY

ESTATE

Acquired by Stephan von Neipperg in late 1998, Château d'Aiguilhe is one of the finest and most beautiful vineyards in the Castillon-Côtes de Bordeaux appellation. Located back from the river, the château's dignified ruins bear witness to a long and turbulent history.

Today, the estate covers 140 hectares, including 90 planted with vines. The vines grow exclusively on the plateau, where they benefit from south-facing sun exposure and excellent natural drainage.

VARIETALS

Composition: 80% Merlot, 20% Cabernet Franc
Limited yields from vineyards with an average age of 40 years

VINIFICATION

Winemaking: Malolactic fermentation and ageing in new oak barrels on fine lees. fining and filtering as necessary, depending on the vintage.

Vatted for 30 days and aged in 30% new oak barrels

TASTING NOTES

Eye: Nice ruby, open and quite seductive

Nose: bundles of juicy mulberry and strawberry fruit with a smear of vanilla filling in any gaps

Mouth: The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, a touch of citric fruit lending tension, impressive depth with a nicely poised, yet elegant finish
